

Thank you Simon.

We believe you are incorrect and that a status of EXECUTOR is in force due to, the current claims of incapacity that we are appealing.

I have attached a full copy of the current 'LIVING WILL'.

Can I draw your attention to sections 7,8,9 & 10.

In section 3 of the order made by Judge Jackson on the 9th October 2012, he clearly states mum does not have the capacity to decide about her house, whether to sell it or keep it or indeed GIFT IT!

Ignorance has also been given to the fact my mother has wanted to gift her property for many years prior to her death and this has been resisted on the grounds of incapacity.

For the above reasons and the now in force legal and lawful 'LIVING WILL' due to Judge Jacksons order of the 9th October 2012 stating she has capacity to make a will, through legal/lawful advice, its content I believe entitles me to assume the roll of EXECUTOR during mums lifetime.

This also is the reason why we appealed section 3 of the order of the 9th October 2012 in which we await directions upon, where a fair and impartial trial has not been evident.

The whole process stinks of FRAUD from start to end.

A fraud that would not have happened under a common law jury court where there is no conflict of interest of the bar/Judge Judging the bar/solicitor and where the overall exercise is to use my mother's money like confetti to facilitate this on-going fraud.

It is my duty within the instruction of the LIVING WILL to stand in as EXECUTOR in her lifetime!
We also appealed the costs order where we believe HUGH JONES should pay all costs including yours.

Kind regards,
Mike Clarke.

This isn't intended as legal advice but you do know that you only become 'executor' once your mum passes away don't you? And that any reference to being executor now is incorrect (unless she has passed away and I haven't been told – in which case please accept my condolences)
