Dear Mr Clarke,

Thank you for your email.

We can confirm that the above domain has been suspended by Webfusion trading as 123-reg due to its potential defamatory nature.

The above domain is in breach of the 123-reg General Terms and Conditions, to which you agreed on purchase.

Please find the relevant terms below:

3.7 Without prejudice to its other rights and remedies, 123-reg may at its sole discretion suspend the provision of the whole or any part of the Services (temporarily or permanently) and will have no liability to provide the Services on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- 3.7.2 issue by any competent authority of an order which is binding on 123-reg which affects the Services;
- 3.7.4 if an event occurs and 123-reg deem it to be appropriate to terminate the Agreement;

3.9 The Client warrants that the Client Materials will be accurate in all material respects and will not knowingly include material which is illegal, the accessing holding transmitting or supplying of which would be a criminal offence or which is otherwise unlawful or in breach of any applicable law or code of practice applying to such materials.

5.1 The Client agrees that it will:

- 5.1.2 not use the Services, Ancillary Systems and/or Client System or allow them to be used for any unlawful purpose or for the publication, linking to, issue or display of any unlawful material (including any pirated software or any material which is obscene, pornographic, threatening, malicious, harmful, abusive, defamatory or which breaches the rights including Intellectual Property Rights of any third party or which is or encourages criminal acts or contains any virus, worm, Trojan horse or other harmful code) whether under English law or regulation, the laws or regulations of the Client's country or any other place where the results of such purpose or the material in question can be accessed;
- 5.1.5 remove or prevent access to any material hosted on any of the Equipment and/or Client System which causes or is likely to cause the Client to be in breach of the Agreement;

Further to the above breach, we would like to draw your attention to the Final Order made against yourself on 2 May 2012 which prevents you from maintaining any of the existing text and / or posting on your website. The Order also prevents publishing information in relation to the Order on the internet.

As the domain opg.me.uk is a potential breach of our policy and UK law, our Abuse department took action to suspend the domain on 30 January 2013.

We trust you understand that Webfusion must act to limit its liability in such circumstances.

Kind regards,
Webfusion Legal Department
